

McREL INTERNATIONAL

Through an active program of research and analysis McREL focuses on what matters most in raising student achievement. Schools and school systems access our valued, research-based guidance and solutions, including evaluation, professional development, and psychometric analytic services.

Headquartered in Denver, Colorado, McREL serves the global education community. McREL has offices and centres in Australia and the United States, and serves the Pacific region through our Pacific Center based in Honolulu. McREL Australia developed professional learning programs and resources for Curiosity and Powerful Learning.

CURIOSITY AND POWERFUL LEARNING

PRACTICAL PROFESSIONAL LEARNING
FOR TEACHERS AND SCHOOL LEADERS

CURIOSITY AND POWERFUL LEARNING

The pathway to powerful student learning and achievement through:

.....

focused professional learning

.....

precise teaching practice

.....

excellent schools

Our professional learning programs for school leaders and teachers are designed to make excellence achievable.

In every classroom.

In every school.

Every day.

Curiosity and Powerful

Learning programs:

- draw on the direct experience of school leaders and teachers
- work from the evidence about what puts powerful learning in the grasp of every student
- recognise that every school's improvement journey is different.

A suite of manuals supports our Curiosity and Powerful Learning programs. The manuals are student-centred, classroom ready, school ready.

Curiosity and Powerful Learning manuals are designed for practical people – teachers and school leaders whose priority is student growth and student learning. In every classroom. In every school. Every day.
